

DALF – your international diploma for exchange programmes

La vie en français.

Would you like to teach French as part of basic or further education in Switzerland? In order to do so, you need certification of your linguistic competence. Why not choose a DALF diploma? Enquire directly at your University about how to integrate DALF into your studies.

What advantages does a DALF diploma provide you with?

- With a DALF diploma, you can participate in University exchange programmes at any University in the French-speaking world, and you are exempt from taking French entrance examinations.
- With a DALF diploma, you are familiar with both oral and written language structures. You can express yourself effortlessly in any given situation without the slightest hesitation. You have a large vocabulary and a good command of idiomatic expressions and colloquialisms.
- A DALF diploma officially certifies your knowledge of language practice and your proficiency in French. It is also a plus on your CV, increasing your chances of studying at the Sorbonne in Paris, or working in France, Switzerland or any of the other 57 French-speaking countries. A DALF diploma can be used throughout the world. Its international recognition holds only advantages for you.

DALF – Your International Diploma for a future Teaching Career

Chic, le français !

For you, French is the language of culture, the language of love and life, the language that opens up the world, the language of international relations, the most widely learned language after English, and the ninth most widely spoken language in the world.

You love the French language and the message conveyed through music, love, literature, film, philosophy, humour etc.

So hesitate no longer: a DALF (Diplôme Approfondi de Langue Française) C1 or C2 language diploma is the strongest evidence of your skills. DALF diplomas are awarded by the French Ministry of Education through its intermediary, Centre International d'Etudes Pédagogiques (CIEP), and are recognised throughout the world. DALF is aligned to the European levels of foreign language learning. At each level, the four core competences are tested: listening, reading, writing, and speaking.

A DALF C2 diploma allows you to teach French as a Foreign Language in more than 174 countries around the world. Consequently, this recognition of your linguistic competences also enhances your opportunities to work and live abroad, make friends for life and gather work experience in various contexts.

French Teaching materials have progressed. Today's Teachers of French as a Foreign Language have access to a multitude of interesting pedagogic and didactic publications.
